Chairman's Budget News

Recently, the Executive Branch has signed collective bargaining contracts with four separate unions (AFCME, SEIU, UFCW, and ISSU) covering the four-year period July 1, 2019 through June 30, 2023. The Independent Fiscal Office does an analysis of each contract to examine the fiscal impact on the state. Below is a brief summarization of each contract and its costs to the General Fund.

The four-year contract that was signed between AFSCME and the Administration covers 30,307 employees. The contract will cost the General Fund $23.3 million in the current fiscal year and $51.9 million in fiscal year 2020-2021. The contract will cost the General Fund $269 million over four years and will cost all funds $827 million over four years. The contract will have four general pay increases effective July 2019 (3.00%), October 2020 (2.00%), October 2021 (2.50%) and October 2022 (2.50%). In addition, there will be three step increases effective April 2020, April 2021, and January 2023.

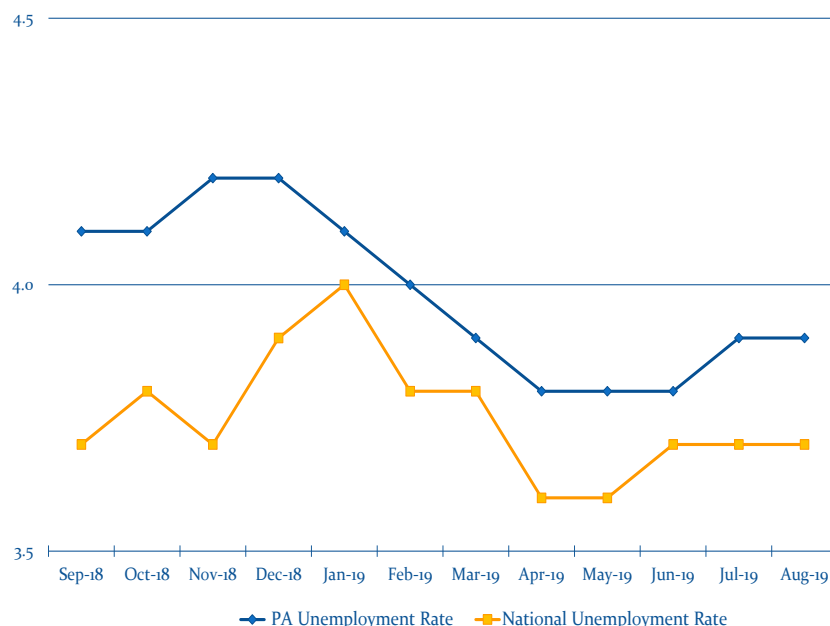

If the administration extends the pay increases provided for in the AFSCME contract to the 12,490 employees classified as management, this will cost the General Fund $164.6 million over four years and will cost all funds $553 million over the four years.

The four-year contract between the Commonwealth and SEIU covers 9,375 employees. The contract will cost the General Fund $10.1 million in the current fiscal year and $22.3 million in fiscal year 2020-2021. The contract will cost the General Fund $115 million over four years and will cost all funds $290 million over the four years. The contract includes four general pay increases effective July 2019 (3.00%), October 2020 (2.00%), October 2021 (2.50%) and October 2022 (2.50%). In addition, there will be three step increases effective April 2020, April 2021, and January 2023.

The four-year contract with the UFCW will have no General Fund Impact but will cost a total of $30.7 million over four years. The four-year contract with the ISSU will have no impact on the General Fund but will cost the State Stores Fund $19.3 million over the four years.
